

Christopher RÆBURN

Royal College of Art graduate Christopher Raeburn constructs high-end, innovative street wear from re-appropriated military fabrics. Raeburn sources his fabrics from de-commissioned military stock and re-designs to create ethically intelligent garments for the contemporary city dweller. All Raeburn garments are proudly remade in England.