

Oria Jewellery's collections are a contemporary twist on classic designs. Their pieces are designed to be treasured and passed down from generation to generation. Inspired by nature and symbolism, each collection tells a story.

Oria's jewellery pieces hold universal appeal: their delicate designs are the creation of genuine artisan skills; offer luxury at accessible prices; and are transparent and ethical in its sourcing policy.

Oria Jewellery adds its latest symbolic collection of Golden Stars to its stunning range of ethical jewellery.

Oria Jewellery, an ethical jewellery design studio, was launched in 2007 by creative duo Tania Kowalski and Synnove Saelthun.

With a combined 25 years experience in the jewellery and design industries, and with a deep passion for fair and ethical jewellery, the two co-founders established Oria as a UK specialist in ethical jewellery.

Oria's ethical principals include:

- workers are paid a fair living wage
- provision of safe working conditions
- child labour is never used

Materials are mined with minimum environmental impact - cyanide and mercury are not used in the extraction of precious metals.
