

MARTINE ROSE

For A/W 09, Martine Rose presents her second self-titled shirt collection called 'Pieces'. Focusing upon subtle and intelligent juxtapositions, traditional cottons and pinstripes are played alongside high-tech nylon performance fabrics. In keeping with her unique handwriting and approach, surprises lie in details and cut- huge circular panels and foil printed details are applied to a new slimmer silhouette than previously seen. Colours are puritan and contained only to black, dark navy and silver.

Martine is proud to present a beautifully executed and sensitive collection, delivering a finely balanced shirt story with impact that is inherently wearable.. An ethos that has become synonymous with this exciting new designer.
