

London

Mayfair St James's East London
Chelsea Greenwich Kensington
Westminster Soho South Bank
Canary Wharf The City Belgravia

the Essential Guide to:
Neighborhoods
Architecture
Hotels The Metro
Museums
History Churches
Art Shopping
Parks and Squares
attractions and more
for urban explorers

Red Maps™

Red Maps

Six Things in Marylebone

for LondonFashionWeek

Marylebone is the charming neighborhood just north of Central London's Mayfair area. Its streets are lined with classic red-brick multi-storied houses and to its immediate north is the elegant Regent's Park. Running through the center is Marylebone High Street, whose shops will help you while-away a morning in this pleasantly relaxed urban village.

xoxo Red Maps

Fashion's "go to" guides.

Red Maps FREE "Six Things" series is about rediscovering a few places in a particular neighborhood which could easily be overlooked. They're all within walking distance of each other and we hope will lead you to find other interesting places along the way.

The deluxe Red Map of London is available for purchase at www.redmaps.com

Just the 6

Royal Inst. of British Architects

RIBA offers rotating exhibits of architectural design.

Wallace Art Collection

One of England's finest collections of Old-Masters and porcelain exhibited in original period rooms.

Cavendish Square

A smart little park named after the 18th c. politically powerful family.

Marylebone High Street

English-styled accessories, a classic bookshop, unique British designers - this quaint street has it all.

Ginger Pig & The Fromagerie

Something quick to keep you going.

Queen Mary's Gardens

Wander, sit, read or chill - it's very pretty here.

The Red Map™

© West 16th Street Map Co., Inc.

